During whole class sessions we will be:

- Looking for signs of autumn in our local environmental.
- Making plot predictions and joining in with repeated refrains when sharing familiar stories.
- Creating self- portraits, inspired by Giuseppe Arcimboldo, using autumnal fruit and vegetables.

Our class reading book this week is:

Different versions of The Little Red Hen.

Number of the Week:

This week we will be exploring the number four. We will look for it in our environment, explore its value, solve simple problems and learn to recognise and write it.

In phonics we will be:

Learning the sounds - ck, e, u, and r
Reading high frequency words - 'to' and 'the'

Phonics

At Home

- When sharing stories at home, pause at different points and encourage your child to make a simple plot prediction.
- Reinforce our number and sounds of the week.
- Go on an autumn walk and see what you can collect. How many conkers did you find?

Autumn Treasures

Should anyone be going on an autumn walk this weekend, we would love your child to bring in some of the autumn treasures they have collected (conkers, leaves, acorns ...etc. Thank you.
