

NURSERY

NEWSLETTER

Week Commencing 20th October 2025

Topic: All about me

This week the children will be:

Story focus: 'Snail trail' by Jo Saxton.

Rhyme: '5 Little Pumpkins in the vegetable shop' they will be counting and ordering numbers 1-5.

We will be talking about the artist Matisse and the techniques of tearing and cutting to make a collage. The children will be making their own collages. They will also be looking at shape and colour to make their own snail pictures. The children will begin to learn how to cut with scissors.

We will be talking about the nights getting darker and the season Autumn. The children will look closely at leaves naming colours, shape and size. They will be copying continuous patterns using natural objects like conkers, cones and leaves.

We will also talk about the feeling 'brave'.

The children will be learning how to take their coat on and off independently.

The children will be learning about the Diwali festival of Light.

At Home you could:

Look for snails outside. Talk about the spiral shape on the snails' shell. What can you find out about a snail?.

Reminder:

Individual photographs will take place during the normal nursery session on Tuesday 21st October.

Have a super half term next week and thank you for working with us to settle your children into nursery, we are having so much fun!
